

Rear Admiral Pat DeQuattro

Deputy Commander, Atlantic Area
U.S. Coast Guard

Rear Admiral Pat DeQuattro assumed the duties of Deputy Commander, Coast Guard Atlantic Area in June 2015. As Deputy Commander, he is responsible for all U.S. Coast Guard missions within a geographic region that spans the Rocky Mountains to the Arabian Gulf, and encompasses five Coast Guard Districts and 40 states. Previous to this assignment, Rear Admiral DeQuattro served as the 2014-2015 U.S. Coast Guard military fellow at the Council on Foreign Relations in New York City.

Rear Admiral DeQuattro's shore assignments include: Executive Director to the Deputy Commandant for Mission Support at Coast Guard Headquarters, Washington, DC; Commander of Sector Key West, Florida; Chief of Response Operations at Sector San Francisco, California; Commanding Officer of the Pacific Tactical Law Enforcement Team in San Diego, California; and tours as a design engineer and project manager at Civil Engineering Units in Oakland, California and Providence, Rhode Island.

His shipboard assignments include Commanding Officer of USCGC SANIBEL in Woods Hole, Massachusetts, Executive Officer in USCGC BARANOF in Miami Beach, Florida, and a tour onboard USCGC VALIANT in Galveston, Texas.

Rear Admiral DeQuattro has represented the Coast Guard serving in a Congressional Fellowship to the U.S. House of Representatives, where he assisted in homeland security and counter-narcotics policy development, and as the Coast Guard Aide to Presidents Clinton and George W. Bush.

Rear Admiral DeQuattro holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the U.S. Coast Guard Academy and a Master's of Science degree from the University of Illinois. He is a graduate of the U.S. Marine Corps Command and Staff seminar program and served as the 2008 Coast Guard Federal Executive Fellow at RAND's National Defense Research Institute in Santa Monica, California.

His personal awards include the Defense Superior Service Medal, the Legion of Merit, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Coast Guard Commendation Medal, the Coast Guard Achievement Medal, various service and unit awards, and the Presidential Service Badge.
